

CAREERS REPRESENTING AMERICA: LIFE AS A U.S. DIPLOMAT

Dream of making a difference with your degree? ✓

Want to get paid to travel the world? ✓

Want a career or internship with global impact, purpose, and adventure? ✓

The U.S. Department of State offers careers and internships for students and alumni from all academic backgrounds, including engineering, information technology, international affairs, operations and management, law enforcement, languages, and much more.

Diplomat in Residence for the Southwest, Antoinette Hurtado, will talk about State Department careers and student programs and share her journey as a U.S. diplomat. Student programs include internships, career pipeline fellowships that pay for the student's education and give them a job as a diplomat upon graduation, and study abroad scholarships. Join the session to learn more and see if this might be the right path for you!
